

Alice M. Weiss, JD

Alice M. Weiss is health counsel for the Ranking Member Senator Max Baucus of Montana's Senate Finance Committee Democratic Staff. Her portfolio for the Committee includes issues related to Medicaid, the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP), and private health insurance. Prior to joining the Finance Committee, Ms. Weiss was the director of health policy for the National Partnership for Women & Families. She also served as Congressional liaison and health policy analyst for the U.S. Department of Labor. At DOL, Ms. Weiss drafted patients' rights legislation and worked on the private health plan ERISA claims procedure rules and the Department's ERISA litigation strategy. Ms. Weiss has testified before Congress on private health insurance issues. She received her Bachelor of Arts in History from Haverford College and her Juris Doctorate from Northeastern University Law School.